

Inter-American Air Forces Academy (IAAFA) Special Duty Information

IAAFA offers rewarding career broadening assignments as well as opportunities to sharpen your Spanish language skills while experiencing and getting to know more about a vast array of Latin-American cultures.

Officer vacancies are filled via the Officer Requisition process. Enlisted vacancies are filled via Equal Plus. Vacancies are posted by specific AFSCs or under the 9L000 interpreter-translator category. At this time IAAFA has the following AFSCs: 3S0X1, 8T000, 1N0X1, 2A2X1, 2A2X2, 2A3X3M, 2A3X3, 2A5X2B, 2A5X1, 2A5X1B, 2A6X1C, 2A6X1H, 2A6X1G, 2A6X2, 2A6X5, 2A6X6, 2A7X3, 2A8X2E, 2S0X1, 2W1X1, 3D0X1, 3D0X2, 3P0X1.

How to apply:

Apply via AMS, vacancies are posted as they become available.

If AFPC determines that you are the most eligible candidate your name will be forwarded to IAAFA for further processing.

As part of our screening process, you will be asked to email the following documents:

1. Last Five EPRs
2. Proof of DLPT Spanish Language Proficiency Score
3. Full Length Photo in Short Sleeve Blues (does not have to be an official photo)
4. V-MPF Surf of your records on a word document
5. Latest PT Score Sheet
6. Letter of Recommendation from Unit Commander

Email all documents to:
Point of Contact on Equal Advertisement
DSN: 473-4563
Comm. 210-671-4563

Upon successful completion of the screening process, you will join a group of individuals performing a unique and rewarding job building international partnerships that enable global security and stability.