

Applying for Citizenship at BMT: Awareness – Education – Access

Awareness

Preparing for Success

Packing list with Recruiting Service
Signage in PRC and Dorms
Tracking Spreadsheet: BMT and TT

Interested in Becoming a U.S. Citizen?

Step 1 Identify yourself to a BMT staff member
Honorably military service currently makes you immediately eligible to apply for citizenship.

Step 2 Add your name to the "BMT Naturalization Tracker"
This list is used to ensure BMT staff can schedule you for appointments during BMT.

Step 3 Use smart phone and valid email account to access QR code to start online account
Creating an online account is the first step to applying for citizenship.

Don't have a phone or are just interested and don't want to start now?
Ensure your name is on the "BMT Naturalization Tracker" | You can get an appointment later to discuss options.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
https://myaccount.uscis.gov/users/sign_up

Motivate, Train & Inspire

Education

Resources in Cerego Library

Creating USCIS online account
Guide for naturalization at BMT
Sample citizenship questions

OVERVIEW
Military Naturalization Guide

Course • 3 Instructional Items • 3 Assignments

Military Naturalization Guide 1 Items Unstarted Start Assessment	How to create an online account 1 Items Unstarted Start Assessment	Sample Test Questions 1 Items Unstarted Start Assessment
---	---	---

Access

Providing Infrastructure and Time

5 Dedicated workstations
Appointments through Scheduling
Overhire pending to manage program

Primary Goals

Awareness
USCIS Online Account

LIMFACS

Training Schedule
Access to Documents

Final virtual appointments involve 3 main steps:
- Validation of all application information
- Writing and speech test
- Test on US history and government

If final 3 steps are successful, oath immediately administered virtually by a USCIS representative

Trainees Nurten Maghsoudi (left, from Turkey), Jordan Flash (center, from Jamaica), and Ivine Kiburi (right, from Kenya) are administered the oath at BMT on 11 Apr 23

As part of the citizenship process, Trainee Maghsoudi also legally changed her name to Eva Akman

Trainees completing process recognized at Coin Ceremony