

OFFICERS'
WIVES' CLUB
1984 - 85

Lowdown

September
'84

SEPTEMBER

Party Season

◆ ◆ ◆

By June Briney
Mary Blake Bryant

OCTOBER

October 1984

Lowdown

Above, from left, retired Air Force Lt. Gen. Rosencrans, president of the Air Force Village Foundation board of trustees, Dorothy Gabriel, wife of the Air Force chief of staff and retired Air Force Maj. Gen. Jess Larson, board of trustees member break ground for Air Force Village II. Left, Gayann Pope (center) and Natalie Stravrevsky (right) of the Lackland Officer's Club, present a pledge of $2,200 to Dorothy Gabriel, wife of Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Charles A. Gabriel, for the Air Force Village. Pledges to the village from the various wives clubs throughout the United States totaled $122,000, and will be used to support the Air Force Village activities during their 1985 club year. The Air Force Village, located in San Antonio, is a retirement home for Air Force officers and their spouses. (U.S. Air Force photos)

NOVEMBER

DECEMBER

JANUARY

Lowdown

Feb.
85

Trish
Martin

FEBRUARY

MARCH

lowdown

march '85

Lowdown

April '85

Hail and farewell

Members of Lackland Officers Wives Club receiving line (from right) Mrs. K.Q. Vandenbos, Mrs. Monte B. Miller, Mrs. Carl R. Smith and Mrs. Donald S. Jones greet Mrs. Kerry Nickou (left foreground) and Mrs. Zygmunt Orzechowski (second from left). The occasion was the OWC's April 16 welcome tea for Mrs. Miller, wife of the new Wilford Hall Medical Center commander and to bid farewell to Mrs. Vandenbos, the wife of the former hospital commander. (U.S. Air Force photo by Robbin Cresswell)

Natalie Stavrevsky

LOWDOWN

may '85

MY NAME'S
Letha
Woolbright
WHAT'S YOURS?

Tom Wilson

ZIGGY® © UNIVERSAL PRESS SYNDICATE

APRIL

1984-85 Officers

1985-86 Officers

MAY

