Scholarships given to five

The Lackland Officers Wives Club presented $1,000 scholarships to five military dependents during a luncheon Thursday at the Officer's Club.

Four of the scholarships were sponsored by the Officers Wives Club and the fifth by the United Services Planning Association and the Independent Research Agency For Life Insurance.

"Each of these students sets a standard for our future," said Judy Orcechowski, OWC scholarship director. "They have each worked hard to earn these awards, and they are very deserving."

The scholarships went to Susan Henderson, Michelle Gibson,

David Willmotte, Lara Nowinsky and Lesley Hanchey. All are the children of Lackland military members.

The Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation reviewed the applications and made the selections based on good academic achievement and citizenship, as well as other considerations.
